

I would like to welcome you and thank you for viewing the first Russellville Police Department website. I am pleased that we are able to provide the Citizens with this new tool. This site will allow the citizens of Russellville as well as other citizens the opportunity to see the inter working of the Russellville Police Department and to assist us in keeping Russellville a safe place to live, work and play.

We here at the department strive to provide the most professional and courteous service as possible. We want the citizens of Russellville to be involved in helping us make this city one of the safest in North Alabama and the state, which is why we have added links that will allow citizens to become involved anonymously. This will benefit the department as well as the community we serve.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of the employees of the Russellville Police Department. Without these individuals this department would not be where it is today. Each one of them plays a crucial part in providing services to the citizens of the City of Russellville, from the dispatcher that takes the calls, to the officer that responds to the calls, to the clerk that files the paperwork. I would also ask that you as citizens to thank an officer if you have an opportunity. It truly means more to officers than you know.

In closing, if I or anyone else from this department can assist you, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Chris Hargett

Chief of Police
